THE READINGS AND PSALMODY FOR PENTECOST May 31, 2020

THE OLD TESTAMENT READING

Genesis 11:1-9 (ESV)

<sup>1</sup> Now the whole earth had one language and the same words.

<sup>2</sup> And as people migrated from the east, they found a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there. <sup>3</sup> And they said to one another, "Come, let us make bricks, and burn them thoroughly." And they had brick for stone, and bitumen for mortar. <sup>4</sup> Then they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves, lest we be dispersed over the face of the whole earth." <sup>5</sup> And the Lord came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of man had built. <sup>6</sup> And the Lord said, "Behold, they are one people, and they have all one language, and this is only the beginning of what they will do. And nothing that they propose to do will now be impossible for them. <sup>7</sup> Come, let us go down and there confuse their language, so that they may not understand one another's speech." <sup>8</sup> So the Lord dispersed them from there over the face of all the earth, and they left off building the city. <sup>9</sup> Therefore its name was called Babel, because there the Lord confused the language of all the earth. And from there the Lord dispersed them over the face of all the earth.

A: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

THE SECOND READING

Acts 2:1-21 (ESV)

<sup>1</sup> When the day of Pentecost arrived, they were all together in one place. <sup>2</sup> And suddenly there came from heaven a sound like a mighty rushing wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. <sup>3</sup> And divided tongues as of fire appeared to them and rested on each one of them. <sup>4</sup> And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance. <sup>5</sup> Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men from every nation under heaven. <sup>6</sup> And at this sound the multitude came together, and they were bewildered, because each one was hearing them speak in his own language. <sup>7</sup> And they were amazed and astonished, saying, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans?" <sup>8</sup> And how is it that we hear, each of us in his own native language?

<sup>9</sup> Parthians and Medes and Elamites and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, <sup>10</sup> Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, <sup>11</sup> both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians—we hear them telling in our own tongues the mighty works of God." <sup>12</sup> And all were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" <sup>13</sup> But others mocking said, "They are filled with new wine." <sup>14</sup> But Peter, standing with the eleven, lifted up his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and give ear to my words. <sup>15</sup> For these men are not drunk, as you suppose, since it is only the third hour of the day. <sup>16</sup> But this is what was uttered through the prophet Joel: <sup>17</sup> "'And in the last days it shall be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams; <sup>18</sup> even on my male servants and female servants in those days I will pour out my Spirit, and they shall prophesy. <sup>19</sup> And I will show wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke; <sup>20</sup> the sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the day of the Lord comes, the great and magnificent day. <sup>21</sup> And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

A: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

John 14:23-31 (ESV)

<sup>23</sup> Jesus answered him, "If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. <sup>24</sup> Whoever does not love me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine but the Father's who sent me. <sup>25</sup> "These things I have spoken to you while I am still with you. <sup>26</sup> But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you. <sup>27</sup> Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid. <sup>28</sup> You heard me say to you, 'I am going away, and I will come to you.' If you loved me, you would have rejoiced, because I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I. <sup>29</sup> And now I have told you before it takes place, so that when it does take place you may believe. <sup>30</sup> I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming. He has no claim on me, <sup>31</sup> but I do as the Father has commanded me, so that the world may know that I love the Father. Rise, let us go from here.

A: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to You, O Christ.

THE PSALMODY

Psalm 143:1-12 (ESV)

<sup>1</sup> Hear my prayer, O Lord;
give ear to my pleas for mercy!
In your faithfulness answer me, in your righteousness!
<sup>2</sup> Enter not into judgment with your servant,
for no one living is righteous before you.
<sup>3</sup> For the enemy has pursued my soul;
he has crushed my life to the ground;
he has made me sit in darkness like those long dead.
<sup>4</sup> Therefore my spirit faints within me;
my heart within me is appalled.
<sup>5</sup> I remember the days of old;
I meditate on all that you have done;
I ponder the work of your hands.
<sup>6</sup> I stretch out my hands to you;
my soul thirsts for you like a parched land. Selah <sup>7</sup> Answer me quickly, O Lord!
My spirit fails!
Hide not your face from me,
lest I be like those who go down to the pit.
<sup>8</sup> Let me hear in the morning of your steadfast love,
for in you I trust.
Make me know the way I should go,
for to you I lift up my soul.
<sup>9</sup> Deliver me from my enemies, O Lord!
I have fled to you for refuge.
<sup>10</sup> Teach me to do your will,
for you are my God!
Let your good Spirit lead me
on level ground!
<sup>11</sup> For your name's sake, O Lord, preserve my life!
In your righteousness bring my soul out of trouble!
<sup>12</sup> And in your steadfast love you will cut off my enemies,
and you will destroy all the adversaries of my soul,
for I am your servant.

THE CONGREGATION AT PRAYER FOR THE WEEK OF THE FEAST OF PENTECOST

“The Helper Comes”

May 31 through June 6, 2020

Pentecost, the fifty days, is rooted in the appointed feasts of the Old Testament. The color for the day is red, which symbolizes the tongues of fire upon the heads of the Apostles and the blood of those who have been martyred for the sake of Christ. Fire is at the center of Old Testament narratives about God which point to His Spirit. For example, there is the burning bush account where the bush is not consumed, just as the fire does not burn the Apostles. Fire purifies and gives light, just as the Holy Spirit purifies us and enlightens us in the true faith. How does this happen? Through the Word of Christ which is recorded in Holy Scriptures. The Spirit is not some energy force which drifts about, but works through the Word and the visible Word of the Sacraments. He does not work except through that Word, for God always works through means for our salvation.

INVOCATION: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. AMEN.

THE CREED

VERSE: <sup>27</sup> Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid. John 14:27 (ESV)

COLLECT FOR THE WEEK: O God, on this day You once taught the hearts of Your faithful people by sending them the light of Your Holy Spirit. Grant us in our day by the same Spirit to have a right understanding in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy consolation; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. AMEN.

PSALM OF THE WEEK:

143

PSALMODY PRAYER: Revive us with Your good Spirit, O Lord, for the sake of Your name. Certainly, none of us is righteous, yet in Your mercy deliver us for Your righteousness' sake. AMEN.

READINGS FOR THE WEEK
Monday	Hebrews 1:1-14
Tuesday	Acts 2:14-36
Wednesday	Acts 2:37-47
Thursday	Joshua 1:1-18
Friday	Joshua 2:1-24
Saturday	John 3:1-17

CATECHISM FOR THE WEEK: The Sacrament of Holy Baptism

What is Baptism?

Baptism is not just plain water, but it is the water included in God's command and combined with God's word.

Which is that word of God?

Christ our Lord says in the last chapter of Matthew: "Therefore, go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit." Matthew 28:19

What benefits does Baptism give?

It works forgiveness of sins, rescues from death and the devil, and gives eternal salvation to all who believe this, as the words and promises of God declare.

Which are these words and promises of God?

Christ our Lord says in the last chapter of Mark: "Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned." Mark 16:16

Luther, On Genesis 11 (1536): ... as a result of this division of languages hearts were disunited, customs changed, and dispositions and endeavors altered. Consequently, you can truthfully call it the seedbed of all evils, since it has caused political as well as economic confusion. Although these are very serious inconveniences, they are nothing in comparison with the confusion that this division of languages has brought to the churches and the endless occasions it has provided for idolatry and superstition. Who does not realize that the function of the ministry was almost entirely disrupted by this change of languages? Eber, who undoubtedly retained the first and true language, was unable thereafter to instruct others whose language he did not know and who could not understand him. Therefore it is a great blessing and an outstanding miracle of the New Testament that by means of various languages the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost brought men of all nations into the one body of the one Head, Christ (Acts 2). Christ joins and unites all into one faith through the Gospel, even though the different languages remain; and He tears down the wall (Eph. 2:14), not only by reconciling us to God through His death and speaking to us in a new language but also by bringing about outward harmony, so that different flocks are brought together under one Shepherd and are gathered into one fold (John 10:16). This is Christ's blessing; and since it is common to all, differences in outward life cause no offense. Let us, therefore, give Him the credit that through the Holy Spirit He has removed this most severe punishment, which was the beginning and seedbed of all evils and discords, and has brought us a holy harmony, even though the different languages remain. For where Christ the Mediator is not acknowledged, there is a disagreement of hearts like that of the languages, and there is horrible blindness.

Hence when we survey the histories of all nations and times, we see that various wars broke out and a great variety of customs, religions, and ideas arose because of the diversity of languages. This evil Christ wanted to remedy by means of a new miracle. I myself do not understand an Italian, nor does an Italian understand me; and so there exists a natural opportunity for anger and enmity between us. But if we both understand Christ, we mutually embrace and heartily kiss each other as fellow members.

But where Christ is not present, there the punishment of Babylon still prevails, the division of languages, which brings on a sure division of hearts and gives rise to confusion, not only in the administration of the home and government but also in religion and the church. This punishment, which is so horrible, warns us to be on our guard lest we fall away from the Word or prefer ourselves above others as though we were better and holier. Because Ham's descendants did this, a horrible punishment followed, which, in my estimation, brought greater harm to the human race than did the Flood itself. The latter harmed only the human beings of one time, but the former lasts until the end of the world. Although Christ brought us some help through His Spirit, yet how small is the part that receives the Word and believes it! The remaining multitude is as divided in its opinions as it is in its languages and renders welcome service to Satan, the instigator of wars and of discord. (LW 2:215-216)

PRAYER: Each day a different aspect of Christian life is covered.

Monday	Our Baptism, calling, and daily work
Tuesday	Deliverance from sin and temptation
Wednesday	Marriage, family, and schools
Thursday	The Lord's Supper, the Church, and Her Pastors
Friday	The Preaching of the Cross, the persecuted, and missions
Saturday	True repentance and restoration of the withering
Sunday	The Hope of the resurrection and faithfulness to the Word

THE LORD'S PRAYER

LUTHER'S MORNING PRAYER: I thank You, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have kept me this night from all harm and danger; and I pray that You would keep me this day also from sin and every evil, that all my doings and life may please You. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me that the Evil Foe may have no power over me. AMEN.

OR

LUTHER'S EVENING PRAYER: I thank You, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have graciously kept me this day; and I pray that You would forgive me all my sins where I have done wrong, and graciously keep me this night. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the Evil Foe may have no power over me. AMEN.

HYMN OF THE WEEK: LSB 497 "Come, Holy Ghost, God and Lord" (stanza 1)

LOOKING FORWARD TO THE SUNDAY OF HOLY TRINITY

June 7, 2020

“The God of Mercy”

HYMNS FOR NEXT SUNDAY: 953, 498, 507, 571, 617, 506, 504

READINGS

Isaiah 6:1-7

Romans 11:33-36

John 3:1-17

From where do we get the name Trinity? It is not a Biblical term, but a Greek word which describes the truth about God that is revealed in the Scriptures. Consistently, the Scriptures tell us that there is only one God who created, redeemed, and sanctifies. Yet, the name of God is a plural form in the Old Testament even when the verb used in agreement is singular. Already in the Old Testament God is referred to as Father, Servant of the Lord, and Holy Spirit. The New Testament is even more specific as Jesus preaches about the relationship of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit as they work for our salvation. The Gospel text from John 3 portrays the loving Father who is willing to send His own Son to be one of us and suffer in our place by being lifted up on the cross. The Son willingly offers Himself that in looking to Him we might be saved from eternal damnation. The Father has promised that all who look to the Son will be saved as surely as those who believed the promise that they would be healed when they looked to the serpent on the pole. Yet, how are we to be raised up from this inheritance of death to the inheritance of life? Jesus teaches us that we receive the inheritance of life through our baptism. It is there that we are born again through the work of the Holy Spirit in the water. The Spirit is there in the Word of God for wherever the Word of God is preached in its truth and purity, there is the Spirit of God at work.
